P. Upon the Beneficiary’s Death

Funeral / Burial Arrangements: SSI regulations require that funeral provisions be prepaid prior to death. Funeral expenses can’t legally be paid after the beneficiary’s death from a pooled special needs trust.

Are funeral provisions in place and prepaid? Yes No

Distributions of the Remainder upon the Beneficiary’s Death:

The beneficiary’s sub-trust individual account terminates upon his or death, as stated in Section 6.02 of the JLA Special Needs Master Trust II, in accordance with POMS Section SI 0 SI 01120.199F.1. In order to meet SSI regulations, the trust beneficiary cannot have the power to terminate the individual account and only the trust can terminate early an account prior to death of beneficiary.

Upon the death of a Beneficiary of an individual account, the Trustee shall make distributions in accordance with the terms of the Joinder Agreement after the allowable administrative expenses are paid and the State’s right to the reimbursement, if any, is satisfied.

The Trust’s Remainder Share will be used in the Trustee’s discretion as follows in accordance with Federal Law: “(a) for the benefit of other indigent Beneficiaries, (b) to add indigent disabled persons, as defined in 42 U.S.C. § 1382c(a)(3), to the Trust as Beneficiaries, or (c) to provide indigent disabled persons, as defined in 42 U.S.C. § 1382c(a)(3), with equipment, medication or services deemed suitable for such persons by the Trustee.”

Disclosure: Because Federal law allows for remainders from pooled special needs trusts to be retained for charitable, tax-exempt purposes, there is a potential conflict of interest of which we are disclosing. However, JLA Trust will always aim to remain true to its mission to “to ensure that children and adults with disabilities are able to obtain the highest possible quality of life, by leveraging the power of community to assist with financial security and peace of mind.”

Remainder Allocations - Final Remainder Beneficiaries

Upon death of the beneficiary, 90% of any 3rd party trusts remainders will be allocated to designated heirs, with the remaining 10% to be retained by JLA Trust to help people with disabilities.

Do you want to designate more than 10% of any remainders to JLA Trust? Yes No

If so, what percentage in total would you like to allocate to JLA Trust? _____

List below the persons or entities that you would like to receive the beneficiary's portion of the remaining funds. The total of the percentage of final remainders MUST equal 100% (after taking out the percentage to JLA Trust above).

If a Final Remainder Beneficiary does not have descendants, then his or her share shall lapse.

Locating Final Remainder Beneficiaries:

Grantor acknowledges that JLA Trust may incur additional costs if Final Remainder Beneficiaries or the beneficiaries of Grantor's estate cannot be located easily. Grantor acknowledges and agrees that the manager may recover its reasonable costs and expenses associated with locating such beneficiaries.

Q. Fees
