P. Upon the Beneficiary’s Death

Funeral / Burial Arrangements: SSI regulations require that funeral provisions be prepaid prior to death. Funeral expenses can’t legally be paid from a pooled special needs trust after the beneficiary’s death.

Are funeral provisions in place? Yes No

If so, are they prepaid? Yes No

Distributions of the Remainder upon the Beneficiary’s Death:

The beneficiary’s ITA terminates upon his or death, as stated in Section 6.02 of the JLA Special Needs Master Trust II, in accordance with POMS Section SI 0 SI 01120.199F.1. In order to meet SSI regulations, the trust beneficiary cannot have the power to terminate the ITA and before death; only the trust can terminate an account prior to death of beneficiary.

Upon the death of a Beneficiary, the Trustee shall make distributions from the ITA in accordance with the terms of the Joinder Agreement after the allowable administrative expenses are paid and the State’s right to the reimbursement, if any, is satisfied.

The Trust’s Remainder Share will be used in the Trustee’s discretion as follows in accordance with Federal Law: “(a) for the benefit of other indigent Beneficiaries, (b) to add indigent disabled persons, as defined in 42 U.S.C. § 1382c(a)(3), to the Trust as Beneficiaries, or (c) to provide indigent disabled persons, as defined in 42 U.S.C. § 1382c(a)(3), with equipment, medication or services deemed suitable for such persons by the Trustee.”

Disclosure: Because Federal law allows for remainders from pooled special needs trusts to be retained for charitable, tax-exempt purposes, there is a potential conflict of interest. However, JLA Trust will always aim to remain true to its mission to “to ensure that children and adults with disabilities are able to obtain the highest possible quality of life, by leveraging the power of community to assist with financial security and peace of mind.”

Remainder Allocations - Final Remainder Beneficiaries

Upon death of the beneficiary, 90% of any 3rd party trusts remainders will be allocated to designated heirs, with the remaining 10% to be retained by JLA Trust in accordance with the provisions of the Master Trust.

Locating Final Remainder Beneficiaries:
